Outreach: Report given by Mike S.

Outreach made two group contacts this month

- Second Chance Group, 200 Church St, Talihina Ok
Fridays 8pm

I made contact with them through social media. They said their Friday meeting was going well and growing but they have canceled their Tuesday meeting. I have informed the meeting list coordinator to the change.

- * Just For Today Group, 104 N College, Tahlequah Ok
Wednesday 7pm

The group is doing well. Their attendance fluctuates between 4-15 people. They are interested in Outreach helping with a cookout in the future to help bring local awareness of their meeting, I did ask them about the other meeting. There is no other meeting and the donation EASC received last month was from them. I have updated their contact information. Traveled 134 miles.

*I am not asking for any reimbursement this time. It is a privilege to be of service to this fellowship.

RCM Report: Reported by Angie

- Full report should be available at eascna.org

RCM Alt: Reported by Ed B.

The Pig Out was a success and raised a total of over 750.00. Theme for up coming Clean and Crazy is to be Freedom Ain't Free. Artwork is needed asap.

OLD BUSINESS-

- area at the world service conference. A report was not received for this months area. We were unable to untangle the previous motions regarding the literature office this month and will do so next month and move forward. This decision was supported by the body in attendance as determined by a straw poll.
- New policy regarding violent and disruptive behavior- Discussion included: 6 months being to long a time period to be banned from area, the consequences of disruptive behavior being to harsh, five groups present stated they would pass the policy as is, sexual harassment should suffer the same consequences as violent behavior, how does area tell people they can't come to area- response was to keep area safe, Based on a straw poll to see how the represented groups felt about existing policy was 17 for, 1 against, and 2 abstain.
